Speaking on behalf of the 300 staff and students of Clinton Elementary School, in central Maine, I would like to praise Omega Man for the outstanding assembly on bullying. Bullying is a social problem all schools face, and his message was delivered with facts, humor and entertainment. The advice he offered will help bring us closer to being a "no bullying zone".

The feedback by staff and students was all very positive. He reached our youngest students in Kindergarten and our oldest in Grade 6. Bending iron rods, lifting people and breaking a baseball bat also grabbed the audience's attention.

I would highly recommend Omega Man. He was everything we expected and more.

Sincerely,

Steve Soule
