Dear Omegaman Staff:

Our students and staff would like to thank you for a great assembly that focused on the concerns that many middle school students face each day. It is not very often in today's world of electronic entertainment that one person can leave an impression on our youth. Omegaman caught the attention of the students and held their interest beyond our expectations. Students mentioned that they understood the importance of believing in themselves and making good decisions. They were awed by the amazing feats of strength and the impact of the message will remain in their memories for years to come.

I would highly recommend the Omegaman program to all schools that would like a positive way to reinforce the message that bullying, fighting, and negative behaviors are unwelcome on your campus.

Sincerely,
